

Historic Preservation Planning Workshop
Grandview Hotel
2900 East Parks Highway, Wasilla, Alaska
(Directly across from the NYE Frontier Ford Dealership)
June 27, 2005
9:00 am – 4:30 pm
AGENDA

- 9:00 AM Welcome and Introduction – Edrie Vinson, FHWA
- Purpose of workshop
- 9:15 AM Knik Arm Crossing Project Background, Update, Schedule - Robin Reich, HDR
- 9:30 AM Potential Indirect and Cumulative Impacts of Project – John McPherson, HDR
- 9:45 AM Potential locations of cultural and historical sites – Richard Stern, Steve Braund & Associates
- 10:00 AM Break
- 10:15 AM Historic Preservation on the Local Level – Dave Cushman, SRI Foundation
- Case study: The Sonoran Desert Conservation Plan (SDCP), Pima County, AZ
 - Introduction – planning context, issues, challenges
 - Preparing the SDPC Cultural Resources Element
 - Goals and objectives
 - Participants
 - Planning phases and process
 - Results
- 12:00 PM Lunch on your own
- 1:00 PM Lessons learned from the SDPC - Dave Cushman, SRI Foundation:
- What worked and why
 - What else we should have done
- Suggestions and Ideas – Planning the Plan
 - What is a preservation plan
 - What should be in a preservation plan
 - Recommendations
- 3:00 PM Facilitated Discussion – How to Move Forward
- 4:00 PM Summary and Conclusion – Edrie Vinson, FHWA